QUAD CITY CHALLENGE 1984

So you wanna be a star. . .Why not be an All-Star? Try out for this once-a-year opportunity to be part of a dart team that will represent the city of Columbus against the best that Cleveland, Cincinnati and Dayton have to offer. The Quad-City Challenge is scheduled for Sunday, November 18 from 1-5 pm, the same weekend as the COD sponsored Buckeye Open Tournament (watch for details of the tourney itself in the near future.)

The Columbus All-Star Team will consist of 24 men (+ 4 subs) and 12 women (+ 2 subs). Qualifiers for the team will run throughout the month of September. (See schedule below). There is a $2 fee for each attempt you make and you may attempt to qualify as many times as you wish. Money raised will buy shirts for the team. Here is the format:

You will throw 3 games of 501 Double-In/Double Out, then average your total number of darts per game. Dates, places and times are:

Friday	9/7/84	Crest Tavern	8-10 PM
Tuesday	9/11/84	Kelley's Bar	8-10 PM
Saturday	9/15/84	Gahanna Lanes	1-3 PM
Wednesday	9/19/84	Ledo's	8-10 PM
Saturday	9/22/84	Big Western	8-10 PM
Tuesday	9/25/84	Port Bar II	8-10 PM
Thursday	9/27/84	Ledo's	8-10 PM
Saturday	9/29/84	Crest Tavern	1-4 PM

One more thing - during qualifying, you will throw with someone else who will verify your score, as you verify theirs.

To All Participants At the Summer EOS Party:

I would like to thank each and every one of you who went out of your way to make our Canadian visitors feel welcome.

I can assure you that each of them went home with nothing but admiration and respect for the COD and its members.

*Mike Weilbacher
Unofficial Host of the Canadian-American Shoot-out*

The following are excerpts of a letter received from Bill Lodge, Commissioner of Darts in Hamilton, Ontario CANADA. Bill was the fearless leader of the Canadian group that visited Columbus during the weekend of August 4 and attended the Summer EOS Party.

. . . On behalf of our Canadian group, I would like to thank all of you for your hospitality. As Commissioner of Darts in Hamilton I was keenly observing the different ideas you have in C.O.D.

. . . I enjoyed winning that lovely trophy in the mixed triples, and that also went for my two playing partners Denise Green and Tom Taylor.

. . . Mike Weilbacher and Nancy Swartz gave us the guided tour of downtown Columbus, including a trip to Planks and finishing up with White-castles. Oh, boy were they good!

. . . I ordered a custom made slate (scoreboard) from Ralph Riemenschneider and when the $30 price was agreed upon I was a winner again.

. . . In talking with President Bill Sapsara, the only time we could get together was dismantling the portable dart stands. I was glad to help out a little there. In America you have the same problem with help in putting up and tearing down the equipment needed for tournament play.

Regards,
Bill Lodge

President's message.

Dear Fellow Darters:

I would like to welcome everyone back to darts for the Fall Season. I hope you haven't gotten too rusty over the summer.

The subject I would like to address in this message is OMVI. For those of you who don't know this mean Operating a Motor Vehicle while Intoxicated.

As our activities are held in the various bars throughout the city, we find that darts and alcohol very often mix. However, alcohol and driving do not mix, and with the new Ohio law, anyone caught driving while under the influence of alcohol will GO TO JAIL.

There are ways of avoiding this situation, and I hope you consider these ideas that I have:

1. Call a Taxi. If you get too drunk a $20 Taxi ride is a lot cheaper than 3 days in jail and a $500 attorney's fee.
2. Designate a different member of the team each week to be the driver and ask that person not to drink for that week.
3. Eat dinner before you go out to play darts or get something to eat at the bar. This may fill you up and keep you from drinking as much as you would otherwise.

I know I don't need to lecture you on this, but please be careful.

Have a good season at darts this year, and I will be looking forward to seeing you all at the All-Star Qualifiers.

Best Regards,

Bill Sapsara

Dig out those muumuus and Hawaii shirts and come to the Port Bar to get leid. The tournament will double as a benefit for MS; so do a good deed, throw some darts and get into the aloha spirit - all at one tournament. Food will be prepared Hawaiian buffet style.

AT END-OF-SEASON PARTY

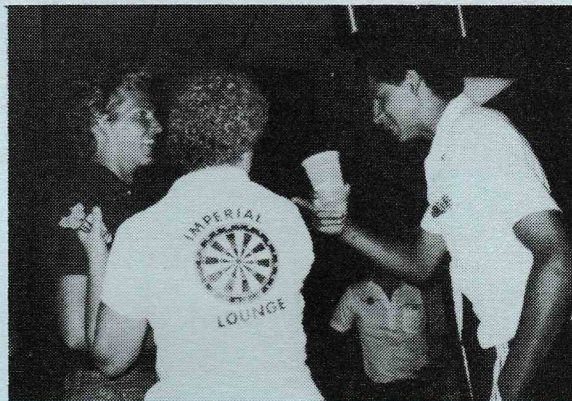

In addition to the usual socializing, feasting, and dart throwing, a special event was staged at the Summer EOS Party this year - a Canadian-American Shoot-Out. This event came about mainly through the efforts of Bill Lodge, Commissioner of Darts in Hamilton, Ontario CANADA and COD's Mike Weilbacher who met last year in Hawaii and had been planning something like this ever since.

The Canadians arrived in town on Friday, Aug 3, warmed up with an impromptu blind draw at the Crest Tavern, got a good night's sleep in the homes of various COD members, and came to the party ready to challenge the Americans to a dart match. Challenge they did; win they did not. COD members defeated them 5 matches to 3. They didn't go home empty-handed, however. Commissioner Bill Lodge and his partner Susan Haddow took 2nd Place in the regularly-scheduled mixed doubles event, as did Bill (with CODers Denise Green and Tom Taylor) in the mixed triples event.

8 COD members were chosen to play matches against the 8 attending Canadians. It went down to the wire. The last match to finish was between Barb Lindeman (Canada) and Gayle Querin. With the score at 4-3 our favor, Gayle kept the match from going into a tie situation by sinking a double 3 to win her match and the challenge. Perhaps Gayle felt extra incentive to pull through for us that day because it was her last COD event for quite some time. She was leaving the next day for her new home in Germany. What a way to end it, Gayle!

Below are the complete match results, with the Canadians on the left and winners underlined.

CANADA - 3		U.S.A. - 5
Bill Lodge	vs	Tom Taylor
Ian Digby	vs	Jim Blanton
Roy Murphy	vs	Jay Claar
Howard Lindeman	vs	Charles O'Harra
Susan Haddow	vs	Mary Hartley
Alice Carroll	vs	Ronda Jenkins
Nancy Herschel	vs	Claudine Foulke
Barb Lindeman	vs	Gayle Querin

Our own Scott Norris (l.) was caught cavorting with Canadians (try repeating that very quickly three times) Susan Haddow and Ian Digby. The northerners could be easily identified by their colorful red, white and black "Imperial Lounge" dart shirts.

NOTICE !!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

MEDLEY IS THE MASTER . . . AGAIN

To any COD member who may be confused about who to contact in the case of address changes, telephone number changes, member status changes, etc please note that it is the League Registrar, not the Board Secretary, who handles this information. The current Registrar is Becky Roberts. She can be reached by clear messages written in the COMMENT section of the team scorecards, by info addressed to her and put in the drop box at the Crest Tavern, by info put in a C.O.D. business reply envelope and mailed, or by calling her at 463-2016.

Please note, also, that the C.O.D. has a NEW P.O. Box and Zip. Anyone holding old scorecards and reply envelopes is requested to dispose of them. The new address is:

CENTRAL OHIO DARTERS
P.O. Box 14109
Columbus, Ohio 43214

The Registrar suggests that all members check with their team captain to make sure that the member's correct and full address, including zip code, was filled in on the fall registration form. If it was not, the member may not receive newsletters, special mailings, etc., from the league.

"I told you man, they hate losing!"

Jim Medley appears to have a firm hold on the TOP SEED position of the Master's League. He made it four out of four with this summer's win. His Burma Road average of 369.42 gave him the lead among the 26 shooters in three divisions. Trailing Jim was Mike Tackett, with a 343.36 average. The charming couple in the picture seemed to be somewhat surprised that they were to be featured in this issue of Dart News. Ronda's response was, "but we're a boring couple." Dave's response to that was "She's boring, but I'm not." Well, we'll leave it to their friends and relations to determine whether or not they're boring, but our interest in them is in knowing that Ronda and Dave Jenkins have been throwing some mean darts around town these days.

In July they accomplished something only a few married couples in the league have, capturing the Open and Ladies Singles titles at the same tournament. They did one even better by winning the Open and Ladies doubles events, too. (See Port Bar JDF results). This was the first big singles win for either of them.

Ronda says her great distinction in darts so far is having won ladies doubles events three times with 3 different partners - Liza Hilyard, Jan Lynch, and Cindy Van Horn. One of Dave's biggest accomplishments was being part of the winning C Division team last season, which consisted of himself, Kim Fondrk, Stan Legue and Steve Gramlich. The team has added a new member, Larry Vanderboegh, and will be sponsored by Slagle-Kiser this season. They expect to play in A or B divisions. Dave and Ronda capped off an already good dart summer by winning their mixed doubles cricket division also.

To Ronda, there is more to darts than just the competition itself, as she is a first year member of the COD Board of Directors. Some of you may remember her as one of the first people to campaign for a spot on the board. After a long stint as a "volunteer" at tournaments, she decided she may as well be more directly involved in the running of the league. She is the Tournament Director of the upcoming Port Bar II 'Royal Hawaiian - "Columbus Style" tourney. She and Dave also co-direct the Crest Tavern Wednesday night blind draw the 2nd Wednesday of every month.

Dave is a T-80 Club member and Ronda is one of those 19 shooters who is no stranger to T-71's but so far hasn't hit the big one. Perhaps she should start a T-71 Club. She says her best shot was a timely T36 out in a ladies doubles event.

Ronda and Dave are practically newlyweds, having married in November of 1982. She has only been at the dart boards since then, about 1½ years, and Dave is quite a bit more experienced, but says he can't recollect exactly when he got started.

They are a nice couple (we didn't say boring) but mean on the dart boards. Just the way a good dart couple should be.

"How's it going, Joe- another easy match?"

PORT BAR JDF RESULTS

Port Bar II's July JDF Tournament to benefit the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation did that in the amount of $340.

The tournament was a fun mixture of familiar faces and new ones, as there was a small group from the Delaware (ohio) dart league present. BETWEEN THE WIRES

Congratulations to JEANNE and JAY TOMLINSON and SUSIE and TOM TAYLOR, both of whom had daughters born to them in August..... We welcome new board members SEAN O'NEIL and JOHN SCAGGS, who were appointed this summer to positions vacated by GARY COVEY and MIKE MUSIC..... Former COD sharpshooter and board member WALT GARRETT was spotted at a recent CREST TAVERN WEDS. night blind draw. Walt now lives in West Virginia and was spending some vacation time here in Columbus.....In case you didn't catch the mention of it in another article we'll repeat the fact that GAYLE QHERIN has moved to GERMANY. The EOS party was her last COD event and she made the most of it by helping us win the CANADIAN - AMERICAN challenge match..... ROB DIXEN and JIM MEDLEY went all the way to GEORGIA to throw darts and draw each other in the blind draw event. Out of over 400 entrants the two Columbus men drew each other and made the TOP 8 in the PEACHTREE OPEN in Atlanta.....ALOHA.....
