Central Ohio Darters

March, April 1985

Volume 11, Issue 1

President's message.

I would like to first thank the members of the board whose term recently expired for the work they did. Secondly, I would like to congratulate your new board members and officers. I know that they will work just as hard as the previous board. A lot of time and effort is required to ensure success of the COD, and the board will need your help and suggestions to continue.

A number of dart events will be upon us shortly: Flight Playoffs; 15th Week Singles; EOS Party and the City Championships; Summer Season and Masters to name a few. We are also exploring the possibility of running a late night league for those who cannot play regular Monday night league. Any interested in a late night league please notify Dave Shaw or any board member.

Good Shooting,

Letters to the Editor

Dear Darters,

I would like to take this opportunity to point out the importance of written bar complaints. Without your written input, things will never improve. The captains of every team should have enough forms and postage paid envelopes for every week, so there is no reason not to write your opinion. There is no way I can go to a bar owner with only heresay and expect changes. Believe me, written complaints work, just ask the owner of Chollies. Starting with the Fall Season there will be new forms which will include a space for your suggestion on improving the darting area, and a space for your name and phone number if you want to know the results of your complaint. Also in September, every bar will have evaluation sheets, in addition to the ones in the captains packet. This will eliminate all excuses for not writing your evaluation. The evaluation sheets are not limited to complaints only, if you know of a bar that might want to join the league put it on the form. Include the bar name, owner, address and phone number.

Happy Darting,

Tom Taylor

LUCKY LIGHTS SPECTACULAR

By Jay Tomlinson

Once again it's time to think about Columbus, Ohio and the 1985 Lucky Lights Spectacular International Darts Tournament. There are several new, exciting features to this year's tournament including a jump in prize money to $30,000, making it the seventh largest dart tournament in the United States.

The second new feature is that we are moving to the luxurious Sheraton Columbus Plaza. The Sheraton offers a larger ball room facility and a more elegant atmosphere. The beauty is that this elegance and luxury comes to you at the same low rates as last year of $39.00 per night single or double and $45.00 per night for triple or quad, plus tax.

But, in order to receive these low rates, you must make your reservations by Friday, May 10th, and you must indicate that you are planning to attend the Lucky Lights Spectacular. Why not beat that deadline date right now by calling 614-228-6060 and making your reservations! You can always cancel or give your room(s) to a friend(s) later. Rooms do not have to be guaranteed unless you plan to arrive after 6:00 p.m.

Another exciting feature of the Lucky Lights Spectacular will be our second annual Bull's-eye News Darters Workshop. This Friday, May 31st program will provide an instructional session with Nicky Virachkul, Sandy Reitan-Green, Judy Campbell, Conrad Daniels, and Tony Payne; a full luncheon; Bull's-eye News regular writers Janet Searcy and Houston Hartwell Reed (Howie's World) will speak to you, or entertain you which ever the case may be, on the directions of the Bull's-eye News and will field questions, comments and suggestions; video tapes from David Irete's Triple 20 Productions; and our Friday program will conclude with an open, but optional, ADO meeting. This special event comes only once a year and will help you relax and get into the spirit of the Lucky Lights Spectacular early. Look for the reservation and information sheet coming in the mail soon for more details.

Finally, check the payout in the Friday night draw doubles as well as the other events. Your chances to win, and win big, are better than ever at the 1985 $30,000 Lucky Lights Spectacular!

Lacy At The Line

By John "Stonewall" Philbeck
Albany, Oregon

Things were looking grim
for the hometown pub that night,
for Lacy was behind
and three darts would tell his plight.

The touring challenger from Wales
had yet to miss an out
and with ninety-two left
the home lads hated the lout.

If only he would miss
and give their man a throw
then Lacy would put an end
to this foreigner's lousy show.

But alas, they could only watch
as the chap displayed his arts
for he was now toeing the line
and preparing to throw his darts.

A solemn hush fell on the crowd
as he slowly eyed the board
and every neck stretched and strained
to see what his dart had scored.

Trip twenty firmly struck
as a smile spread 'cross his face
followed by a sick silence
which spread throughout the place.

KILL HIM! Cried the barkeep
and others took up the cry.
Kill him before he throws again
and we'll call the game a tie.

With a smile of Christian charity
great Lacy's visage shone.
He calmed the mob with one cool look
and bade the game go on.

The challenger seemed quite shook
as he faced the board again.
He quivered as he held his darts
and made his bid for fame.

But now his face turned quite grim
he knew what he must do
he had to hurl a winner
that equaled thirty-two.

The crowd had all but given up
some even turned away
they couldn't stand to watch
their champion lose that way.

And then the dart flew through the air
and in the bristle it went
a groan went up as it hit red.
But wait! The wire was bent.

Ten minutes he stomped around the pub
and screamed and cursed his luck
but it didn't do a bit of good
the dart was firmly stuck.

He tried for double eight
but his dart was really quite wide
there was nothing he could do
but take the spears and hide.

Then from fifteen throats and more
there rose such lusty screams
they made the bottles rattle
and shook the oaken beams.

They beat upon the tables
and put on quite a show
for Lacy, mighty Lacy
was advancing to the throw.

There was ease in Lacy's manner
as he stepped into his place.
There was pride in Lacy's bearing
and a smile on Lacy's face.

And when responding to the cheers
he made a solemn sign
no stranger in the crowd could doubt
't was Lacy at the line.

Thirty eyes were all upon him
as he gave the board a glance.
Fifteen heads nodded approval
as he wiped his hands dry on his pants.

The boys were now all happy
the lassies were turning flips
for with Lacy being right on his game
he was sure to make one-thirty-six.

With an air of calm defiance
he threw directly at his score
another wild cheer welled up
as he racked a fifty-four.

Once again the board is shaken.
Once again the roar and scream.
As the chalk dust slowly settled
there was a trip sixteen.

The sneer is gone from Lacy's lips
his teeth are clenched in hate.
The crowd all confidently smiled
for they knew his challengers fate.

And now he strongly grips the dart.
And now he lets it go.
And now the double sixteen is shattered
by the force of Lacy's throw.

Oh, somewhere in this favored land
the sun is shining bright.
The band is playing somewhere
and somewhere hearts are light.

And somewhere men are laughing
and thrones are being mounted.
But there is no joy in our pub
MIGHTY LACY HAD MISCOUNTED!
