HOLMES, COSSIN, ROLL - TAYLOR WIN CITY CHAMPIONSHIPS AT WINTER PARTY

The second biggest cheer occurred when Dave Holmes captured the men's singles championship in a tough finals match against Mike Detjen by taking 100+ out to win it. C.O.D. IN A.D.O.

Jim Medley and Jay Tomlinson outshot (literally) all the other guys in the local A.D.O. Allstar Team Qualifiers and Pam Ritchie outshot the ladies to become C.O.D.'s representatives in the A.D.O. Allstar regional finals. These three, along with City Champions Dave Holmes and Donna Cossin, will compete for spots on the A.D.O. All-Star Team against other players in Region IV (Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky, Tennessee, Western Pennsylvania, Indiana). We'll let you know next issue whether or not any of our players make the team and a trip to Las Vegas to play the British (B.D.O.) All-Star Team.

END OF SEASON PARTY AUGUST 6TH

The summer's End-of-Season Party is scheduled for Saturday, August 6th at the Archbar Grotto, 3790 Agler Road. To Make it up to some of those folks who were disappointed that there was no blind draw event at the last party, there will be both a Blind Draw Doubles and a Blind Draw Triples event at this one. The party is, as always, free to C.O.D. members and $5 for guests of members.

Dear C.O.D. Member,

In the past few years I have met many members of the league. For those of you who don't know me, I'll give you a little background. This is my third year on the board. I served as Chairman of the Rules Committee, Bar Relations Committee and as Vice President last year. I am active in the Wednesday Night Blind Draw at the Crest Tavern. I have been a league member for the past four years and I play on a team named the B-Wears.

I am very impressed with the growth of our league in the past several years. My goal this term is not only to accomodate our present growth, but to prepare the league for future growth. I think each member can contribute to this league in some way. I would like to hear new ideas and suggestions from our members - if not personally, drop a note in the mailbox at the Crest. If you have been considering volunteering some time to help with league functions please let either myself or a board member know. I think you will find the work both fun and rewarding, as I have. Our league needs fresh new ideas and people to participate in our future growth.

Within this newsletter you will find next fall's registration materials and the summer season party information. Please read the registration form carefully and fill it out completely when registering your team for fall. Our summer season party is very relaxed. We will have two Blind Draw events that everyone can play in. Please try and make it to the party.

Until the next newsletter, to all those playing this summer season - good luck! I hope everyone enjoys this summer. See you at the party!

NEW MASTERS LEAGUE

If any of you C.O.D. members are very serious about improving your dart game and are ready for tough, lengthy competition - think about the new C.O.D. Masters League. This new league is having its initiation this summer and is expected to be offered during the regular fall and winter seasons in addition to our regular league play. Main features of this new concept, one which as been desired by some of our strong shooters for quite a long time, are:

1. It is entirely a singles competition.
2. Play consists of four 3 out of 5 matches in 501 SSDD, Cricket, Burma Road (Half-It) and 301 DIDD.
3. Round robin play will be scheduled for the season.

4. There is a $25 initiation fee plus $5 weekly fees. This is in addition to the C.O.D. yearly dues.
5. Monies will be totalled and paid back to the individual based on points earned.

Watch for additional information and registration forms at the End-of-Summer-Season Party, August 6th and in the next issue of Dart News.

feature darter

Well, folks, this is the last issue of Dart News (at least for awhile) that will have Ben Roll's name all over it. The company for which he has worked for 11 years as a technician, AT&T, has transferred him to Houston, Texas. For this reason and also because he is one of the finest darters COD has ever ad in its ranks we wish to feature him in this issue.

Suzie Taylor

Ben Roll began throwing darts in 1967 while in the Air Force in Biloxi, Mississippi. When he first came to Columbus in 1971, no one had started playing organized darts yet. (Or at least he didn't find out about it). It wasn't until 1978 that he started playing in the COD with some friends from AT&T - Mike Haines, Rod Foley and Harry Wasson. The name of this team was Bull-Throwers and they won a trophy the first season.

Since then, Ben's dart game has come a long way. He has won over 50 trophies and this past February won his first singles event at the Tommy Orr Memorial. Ben's wife, Debbie, recently won her first trophy playing with Ben at the Gavel Classic in May.

Another contribution Ben has made to darts is the development of the bracket system first used by the Bulls-Eye Marketing tournaments. Tournaments around the country are now using a modified version of this system. Ben spent 6 weeks constructing the first one.

When Ben is not throwing darts he enjoys long rides on his Harley-Davidson and can often be found at one of his favorite bars, Spankey's, on the west side. He also raises Kerry-Blue terriers and just had 3 new puppies a few weeks ago (that is, his dog did).

As Ben leaves Columbus and Central Ohio Darters, he is undefeated in his last 4 entries in Open Doubles and is this year's Open Doubles City Champion. Keep in touch, Ben.

T-80 UPDATE

Mark Todd has recently taken over the record-keeping duties of the T-80 Club from Dan Landis. In the future, please call Mark at 871-4343 to report a first time T-80 so that he may order a mug for you or to report additional T-80's for the record.

Mark Todd

Since our last article on the T-80 Club in the Sept-Oct 1982 issue of Dart News, we've added a few new members. Those of you who have still not earned your mug will attest that hitting a T-80 is not an easy task. You need consistent darts, steady nerves, and the confidence to do it. Once you start hitting some good groups, be prepared for that moment when you have a T-20 looking at you and one dart left in your hand.

When you do hit it, go ahead and hoot and holler if you want. Most do, and who can blame them? However, if you let your exhilaration carry you away you may forget that your purpose at the start was to win the game. It is an undocumented fact that an unreasonably high number of T-80 throwers end up losing their game for this reason. While playing one of the league's better darters recently I saw an excellent example of that person's ability to remain calm after hitting the big one. After the game, I asked him why he was so quiet about it and he, of course, said "I thought it best to keep my mind on the game."

Here is a listing of the newest members of the T-80 Club. I wonder how many of them lost that game!

Jerry Shackelford (3)	Bill Finck
Mike O'Brien	Dan Doles
Dan Tedrick	Mark Sweazy

Jim Conner	Mike Carney
Jay Cline	Marti Nesser
Jeff Haycock	Jane Detjen
Charlie Hand	Bill Young
Ron Nash	Rick Norton
Gaye Pfeifer	Rick Waldo
Steve Gramlich	Jim Medley (3)
Robert White	Scott Dillon

Oh, Yes, there is one additional new member. It took him around two years to get his sanctioned T-80. Others have done it in less time, but this guy started when he was 78 years old! Bob "Pappy" Koogler, we're all proud to have you in the club. Congratulations to all of you.

GAVEL CLASSIC HELD

The 1st annual Gavel Classic was held May 20 & 21st at Gahanna Lanes. Ben Roll, Trevor Edwards and Joe O'Neil threw T-80's and the Ben/Tom Taylor team won the Open Doubles event again. As a team, Ben and Tom are undefeated in Columbus tournaments in four outings and will probably remain that way since Ben has recently moved to Houston, Texas. Just think! The darters in Houston are still innocently sleeping peacefully at night not knowing what is about to hit them. At least we know what we have lost. Ben's fine stroke, intense concentration and good sportsmanship (nobody wins all the time) will be greatly missed by the C.O.D.

Also, try to find out what your colleagues there have done, so that we may be as complete as possible. It will be greatly appreciated. Send info to Central Ohio Darters, P.O. C.O.D. REBATE SPECTACULAR

On July 15, 16 and 17, the $21,000 LUCKY STRIKE SPECTACULAR will be held here in Columbus at the luxurious and spacious Quality Inn on Sinclair Road, Morse Road at I71. This will be the largest darting event ever to be held in Columbus, Ohio and will provide participants and spectators fun and excitement.

The Spectacular will feature some new events such as Mixed Doubles and the Bullseye Tournament Players Invitational. In addition, all finals will be played on the stage Sunday evening scheduled to begin at 5:00 pm. Hopefully, this grand finale will allow everyone to watch the finals and cheer their champion to victory.

Once again, C.O.D. darters will benefit from the C.O.D. Rebate Program. This feature will offer C.O.D. darters a BUY 1 GET 1 FREE deal on entry into events. Simply stated, enter the 501 Doubles event and get into the Cricket Doubles free, enter the Mixed Doubles event and get into the Mixed Triples free, enter the Cricket Singles event and get into the 501 Singles free. (The A.D.O. $1.00 surcharge fee is not included, and the Rebate Policy does not apply to the Friday night Blind Draw event.) You do not have to win any matches to take advantage of this Rebate Policy.

This Rebate Policy is made possible through contributions from the Crest Tavern into the C.O.D. Rebate Fund, and is based on the participation in the Crest Tavern Wednesday Night Blind Draw. The purpose is to support and give C.O.D. darters a better opportunity to participate in more events at the LUCKY STRIKE SPECTACULAR. The "free" entries will be paid from this Rebate Fund.

The SPECTACULAR offers C.O.D. darters an excellent opportunity to participate in a truly major dart tournament right here in Columbus. The finals will provide a great show and the BUY 1 GET 1 FREE Rebate Policy to C.O.D. darters is an added attraction that will make July 15, 16 and 17 a weekend to remember. See you there! (C.O.D. membership cards will be required for membership verification.)
