President's message.

Fellow Darters:

The dates for the Buckeye Open have been set. It will be held on November 21 and 22, and the Quad City Challenge will follow on Sunday, November 23. I hope all of you mark your calendars with these dates and plan to attend. I want to take this opportunity to talk about the Quad City Challenge.

For those of you who are new to the COD, the Quad City Challenge pits all-star teams from Columbus, Dayton, Cincinnati, and Cleveland in a match to decide, essentially, the championship of Ohio. This is an annual event held in conjunction with the Buckeye Open. While it is an honor for Columbus to host this event each year, it is disconcerting to realize that the Central Ohio All-Star Team has never won this event. In fact, last year we finished fourth. I don't know about you, but I don't like this!

There is no good reason for the Central Ohio team to do so poorly. We have the talent to do well. I think what we have to address are the intangibles - desire to participate and team spirit. To compete against the best in your chosen sport is the desire of all athletes. All sports have all-star competitions. It is considered an honor to be a member of those all-star teams. Thus, it should be the desire of all area darters to be a part of the Central Ohio All-Star Team. The COD has always taken pride in the fact that we have never hand-picked an all-star team. We have always held open qualifiers to allow darters to earn their places on the team. This practice will continue. The qualifiers will be open to all darters in the Central Ohio area. It is my sincere hope that everyone in the COD and every other area league will attempt to qualify so we can field the best Central Ohio All-Star Team ever.

So—we've put together the best team in the history of darts. What else can we do to insure our success? I believe we have to kindle a team spirit. Every member of the team is self-motivated to throw his very best. This is not a problem, but on the other hand, it shouldn't be the only motivation. The team needs fan support. Most every winning team in any sport has fans who come to the sporting event to root their team to victory. One would think that this would not be a problem at the Quad City Challenge as it is held on our "home turf." Last year however, with few exceptions, the only people from Central Ohio who showed up were the team members and those people running the tournament. The other three cities had ready-made cheering sections. All of their people who came to the Buckeye Open stayed around to cheer on their all-star teams.

The All-Star Team represents us all. The least we can do is take a few hours out of our Sunday afternoon to show the team that we appreciate their efforts. Let's get psyched central Ohio darters! It's time to show the rest of the state that we are the best.

Shoot Well!

John Scaggs

BUCKEYE OPEN SET

The Hilton Inn East will be the site of the Fourth Annual Buckeye Open on November 21-23. Rick Clapsadle and Jan Lynch are co-chairpersons for the event and have worked with the Hilton personnel to agree on a good contract with room rates of $39.00 per night.

There remains much work to be done. Although Gary Covey will be the tournament director, other people are needed to help with registration and drink ticket sales. So, volunteer to help by calling Rick or Jan, or say "Yes" if you are asked.

Remember that's November 21-23, 1986!
Mark your calendar and call the Hilton to make your reservations.
