Buckeye OPEN IV

NOVEMBER 21-23

It's November, and that means (in addition to Thanksgiving) the BUCKEYE OPEN. For those of you new to our league, this tournament is run by the C.O.D. each year in conjunction with the Quad-City Challenge. The Buckeye Open IV will be held at the Hilton Inn East, November 21-23, with the Quad-City following on Sunday, November 23. There will be 8 different events in which to compete and a total purse of over $6000 (see p. 2).

We think you'll be pleased with the selection of the Hilton Inn East for our tournament. Room rates are $39.00, and food and beverages will be available at reasonable rates.

Because the COD sponsors the Buckeye Open, all of the work to make the tournament run smoothly must be done by our members. If you are willing to help, please contact one of the following people:

Registration -
John Wadin 891-6276
Drink Tickets -
Dale Simpson 294-7340
Patti Sue Paul 263-7016

BUCKEYE OPEN T-SHIRTS will be available at the tournament for $15, or call Tom Taylor about purchasing your shirt now.

ENTRY FEE BONUS AT BUCKEYE

Once again, the use of the Rebate Fund will enable COD members to get bargain rates at the Buckeye Open. The Rebate Fund is generated by your participation at the COD Wednesday Night Blind Draws at the Crest. If you register for 1 event at the tournament, registration for a second event is free. You must register for both events at the same time, however, so get your partners lined up!

EDITORIAL COMMENT

Recently, one of our members had to be expelled from the league, for a violent display that could have seriously injured another darter, after throwing a bad turn. Also, one of our bars has complained about some of our members smashing glasses in their restroom after Monday league. And, I could go on. I just cannot believe what I am hearing. All I can say is that I am shocked. Do you people act this way in other social settings? Do you throw the deck of cards in disgust if you lose a hand? Do you scream out profanities when you don't pick up that spare in bowling? Do you throw chairs around your house when things don't go your way? Well, why do you do it in darts?

How do you think other people see us, when our members act like that? Is that the way you want others to think of us? Agreed, not all of us fly off like this. But, it only takes a few people doing it to give all Darters a bad reputation. The sport of Darts will never outgrow this bar-room stigma as long as the players act stupid. The Board of Directors cannot baby sit you. It is up to all of you to police yourselves and let the people who are the problem know that we don't appreciate their acting that way. We have lost many older members, good darters, who have just as much right as the rest of us to play, because of the poor conduct of some of our members.

There is no good reason to jump and yell and cause a scene, as all of us have seen happen before. You don't see the best darters do this, they understand that it only distracts you from the game and ruins your concentration. You are playing into the hands of your opponent, who will keep his cool and come back to destroy you. Put it out of your mind and concentrate on the next turn.

Come on everybody, let's get our act together. This is a game of skill. Let's show that we are skilled, and civilized, and that Darts is not some dumb game played by dumb people getting drunk in a bar.

Please.

STATE DART CHAMPIONSHIPS

The State Dart Championships were held in Dayton, September 13-14 at the Holiday Inn. Joan Shawver Medley, previously from Columbus, won the Women's Singles State Championship by defeating Julie Nicol Sullivan in the finals. The State Women's Doubles Championship was won by Sharon Tolliver and Debbie "Bubba" Allen. The rest of the Dayton results will be in the next issue.

Columbus did well against the other cities in Dayton. There was a great turnout from Columbus, and quite a bit of the prize money was brought back here. We should have a great All-Star team this year for the Quad-City Challenge.
